THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE B.PRAKASH RAO

AND

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE M.VENKATESWARA REDDY

WRIT PETITION NO.2892 OF 2007

O R D E R:(PER BPR J.,)

Herd both the learned counsel.

The matter is being taken up for disposal, at the admission stage itself.

First petitioner is the son of the second petitioner and second petitioner is his father. Second respondent is the wife of the first petitioner. This writ petition is filed seeking to transfer the pre-litigation matter from the file of the first respondent-Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, Kurnool District, to any other District on certain allegations and apprehension mentioned in the affidavit.

When the matter is coming up for appearance before the first respondent, this writ petition is filed stating that there is life threat from the side of the second respondent-wife and her supporters and they are not allowing the petitioners to attend before the first respondent-Legal Services Authority. It is stated that the proceedings going on before the first respondent is in violation of Article 21 of the Constitution of India. Hence, this writ petition.

As the matter is within the purview of the District Legal Services Authorities as constituted under the Legal Services Authorities Act where the petitioner can as well approach for the self same remedies before the hierarchy as created thereunder. Hence, having regard to remedies available, we do not find any reason to interfere with the writ petition.

The writ petition is, therefore, dismissed. No costs.

_____

B.PRAKASH RAO J.,

_____

M.VENKATESWARA REDDY J.,

15.02.2007
tjs